Practice Standards for Professional Boundaries

Practice Standard #1: Fostering Therapeutic Relationships

Principle Statement:

As related to professional boundaries, the occupational therapist will foster therapeutic relationships with his or her clients in a transparent, ethical, client-centred manner with respect for diversity of beliefs, uniqueness, values, and interests.

Practice Expectations

The occupational therapist must do the following:

1. Assume responsibility for anticipating, establishing, maintaining, and communicating appropriate professional boundaries with the client.

2. Respect each client’s uniqueness and diversity, taking into account such factors as the client’s capacity, beliefs, values, choices, religion, lifestyle, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, and culture.

3. Obtain, maintain, and document informed client consent. Refer to Practice Standards for Consent.
